JENNIFER HOFFMAN

Trainer & Executive Coach

Jennifer is a coach and facilitator with a deep commitment to developing and empowering purpose-driven leaders. She spent nearly 30 years serving the U.S. Government as an intelligence officer, foreign service officer, and civil servant—roles that included advising and coaching some of the nation's most senior officials.

At Fringe, Jennifer draws on her multidisciplinary expertise to help leaders forge meaningful connections and build the skills needed to navigate sensitive, complex environments with authenticity, accountability, and humanity.

Jennifer holds a Certificate in Leadership Coaching from Georgetown University and is certified by the International Coach Federation. She earned an M.A. in International Studies from the University of South Carolina, a Diploma in Political and Social Sciences from the Institute for Political Studies in Paris, and a dual B.A. in International Relations and Political Science from Muhlenberg College.

With fluency in French and a global perspective, she brings both depth and dimension to her coaching practice.
